

Iran Tour

April 4 - 20, 2020

A Great Opportunity to See a Wonderful Country

After organizing wonderful tours in the recent years, Hikmat International Institute is pleased to announce that the next "IRAN TOUR" will be held in April 2020 for professors, students, and anyone who is interested to see Iran's most important tourist attractions and learn more about the beauty, culture, religions and history of that great and historical land. There will also be friendly meetings and discussions with academics, religious leaders, scholars etc. The tour will be held with high standards and is an amazing opportunity. The group will include 15 to 20 participants.
